

Suspense while waiting for definite news from Europe is great; But probably it's greater over there.

J. Romero, it is said, is the boy who put the Imp in Imperial Republican Bernalillo County.

The Evening Herald

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

TRIBUNE-CITIZEN,
Vol. 26, No. 56.

© 1914

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1914.

TEN PAGES TODAY

THE EVENING HERALD
VOL. 1, NO. 138.

WE

will make 'em explain even if we do have to stand for the raise in the cost of eating.

SEMI-OFFICIAL FRENCH DISPATCH SAYS JAPAN HAS DECLARED WAR ON GERMANY

German Chancellor Declares War Life and Death Struggle Between Germany and Russia

Political Autonomy Offered Poles in Exchange for Loyalty to Czar

ABSOLUTE SILENCE TODAY FROM ALONG BATTLE LINES OF THE OPPPOSING ARMIES

BALKAN LEAGUE WILL BE REVIVED AND ITS ARMIES TURNED LOOSE ON EUROPE

London, Aug. 15, 5:15 p. m.—The official press bureau of the British admiralty and war department this evening issued the following:

"There is no reason to doubt that the Turkish government is about to replace the German officers and crews of the Goeben and Breslau by Turkish officers and crews."

The statement adds:

"No news of special importance has come to hand. There have been engagements at one or two points but these appear to have been mainly outpost affairs."

"News from official sources continues to indicate that the French and Belgian artillery is proving superior to the German and also that the German infantrymen do not determinedly face bayonets."

New York, Aug. 15.—A dispatch from German official sources at Berlin was received here today with Sayville, L. I., wireless station as follows:

"The Seventh French army corps and an army division from Belfort which had invaded upper Alsace were defeated yesterday by German troops near Muehhausen."

The dispatch, somewhat mutilated by poor transmission, indicated that French entrenchments were taken at the point of the bayonet.

Home, via London, 4:05 p. m.—The correspondent of the Messenger, on returning today from a trip across the Adriatic, says that the Austrian fleet remains in the protected waters of the Austrian naval port of Pola. The entire coast from Pola to Antwerp, the correspondent adds, is heavily mined.

London, 7 p. m., Aug. 15.—The Central News correspondent at Brussels who has returned from the front, estimates that the German losses in killed throughout the fighting against the Belgians so far amounts to 15,000.

The British official press bureau in its communication today says:

"The German offensive is for the moment arrested in upper Alsace and there are indications that the French have made progress on that side."

Brussels, Aug. 15, 1:45 p. m.—via London, Aug. 15, 2:40 p. m.—It was officially announced this afternoon that the situation remains satisfactory and that nothing happened during the night.

A Belgian sergeant who escaped from Liege asserts that there is much demoralization among the German troops there. A German officer and eight soldiers committed suicide by throwing themselves into the river Meuse.

London, Aug. 15, 4 p. m.—"There are indications of an intention on the part of the German troops to envelop the extreme left of the allied forces," according to a statement issued by the official press bureau here this afternoon.

Brussels, via London, Aug. 15, 4:38 p. m.—The Belgian minister of war today officially denied the rumor that the Germans had occupied the fortified town of Diest, to the northeast of Louvain.

WARNS GERMANS AND THE WORLD AGAINST FALSEHOODS

Copenhagen, Denmark, Aug. 15, via London, 1:45 p. m.—The Berliner Tageblatt of August 12, which reached here today, contains a manifesto to the German nation by General Stein of the German general staff, in which the public is cautioned against believing any statements except those given out by the general staff. It says:

"In England and France falsehoods are being spread broadcast. You Germans have too much faith in your government to accept rumors too easily."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The train carries expert telegraphers and is preceded and followed by armored trains."

"Among the equipment is a small, simple tent, which is to be pitched on the field whenever the emperor addresses his troops and sleeping saloon cars added to which are well filled boxes for his majesty's chargers and his motor car."

"The train carries expert telegraphers and is preceded and followed by armored trains."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The train carries expert telegraphers and is preceded and followed by armored trains."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wickedness of our enemies."

"The English accuse us of having suggested partition with Holland in exchange for her neutrality. Such charges are beneath contempt and demonstrate the righteously of our cause and the wicked